

Bob Homolka

Born:

Other History:

- Retired professor at Kansas State University
- He has worked over 4000 baseball games – his first college game was in 1973
- Worked in
  - Big 8, Big 12, Missouri Valley, Mid-Continent, Big 10 Summit League, Alaska League, Jay Hawk, Mink
  - Has worked in 27 D1 Conference Tournaments, 20 NCAA Regional's, and 2 NCAA Division 1 World Series
- Member of the Kansas Baseball HOF
- Member of the Kansas Collegiate Officials Hall of Fame

NBC History: waiting for him to return to my email

- Was a player in 1960
- Umpire the NBC for over 34 years
- Currently the Umpire in Chief for NBC affiliate Alaska Goldpanners in Fairbanks
- NBC assignor since 1999
- Scheduled over 600 NBC games

WRITE UP:

Robert Homolka has been an umpire for nearly 50 years working more than 4,000 games. He umpired his first college game in 1973. Since then, he has worked in the Big 12, Big 10, Missouri Valley, Metro, and Summit conferences. He has umpired in 27 Division 1 Conference tournaments as well as two NCAA Division 1 World Series. Homolka played in the NBC during the 1960's and has continued to work with the NBC for over 34 years. He is currently the Umpire in Chief for the NBC affiliate Alaska Goldpanners in Fairbanks, Alaska.