About the NBC World Series: The National Baseball Congress World Series has been the premier summer showcase for college-age amateur players since 1935, with more than 900 players playing in the NBC on their way to the Major Leagues. In 2025 16-teams from across the country competed, with over $80,000 in team compensation distributed. The NBC Baseball Foundation non-profit 501c(3) strives to bring back a love of the game, empowering young athletes, connecting communities, and creating lasting memories through our programs and the NBC World Series.
