Seattle WA finally broke through the barriers in winning its first title (the first team to do so with less than seven wins). The Studs rallied from a 6-3 deficit in their opener against San Antonio TX with a four-run ninth, broke a 2-2 tie against El Dorado with four in the seventh, overcame Hutchinson KS with a two-run seventh. They toppled longtime nemesis Santa Barbara with a run in the seventh, and went 12 innings to edge Clarinda IA after tying the game in the ninth.

Seattle broke out on top against Wellington KS, coming within one out of a shutout.

The win over the Foresters in the fourth round was just the second in six meetings.
